MONESSEN MEN ACQUITTED OF CONSPIRACY CHARGES

Jury At Greensburg Sitting On Case Returns Verdict This Morning.

Do Not Find True Bill Against Miner On Serious Charge

Mike Moxie Not Guilty Of Involuntary Manslaughter.

The grand jury finished up the hearing of criminal cases yesterday and was discharged with the thanks of the court. In every case heard yesterday the bill was ignored, among them the case of Mike Moxie, charged with involuntary manslaughter. The case went before the grand jury by leave of court on recommendation of the coroner's jury. Their names are Luigi Miola, Alberto Sardo, Giuseppe Parisi and Michele Falsetto. The latter three were also charged with carrying concealed weapons, but they were acquitted of that. The account of the men's alleged attack of a man by the name of Frank Rose and the subsequent fight of the police to land them in the lockup at Monessen was printed in these columns after the occurrence. They were claimed to be Black Handers.

It was alleged that Rose had received a Black Hand letter and was requested to place certain amount of money at a designated spot on the bridge. He notified the police and two of them went to the place. There they found the four men named above and after a hard fight arrested them.

The men were acquitted of the conspiracy charge, they denying any knowledge of the sending of the letter. There were present several character witnesses - among them being three Dunlevy men. On the charge of carrying concealed weapons the latter three were acquitted by their statement that they were in fear of personal harm and explained their presence on the bridge by saying that they had gone there to see a fight between two of their countrymen.

FAYETTE CITY CLUBS RAIDED

Fayette City, Pa., November 12.— Acting under special instructions from Judge J. Q. Van Swearingen, following the conviction of J. W. Steel, druggist, of this city, on a big charge of selling liquor illegally, a big raid was made, late Tuesday night, on clubs operating here.

As a result of the raid 19 arrests were made, the accused each giving $500 bail for a hearing next Tuesday, while enough liquor was seized to stock several hotels.

The raid was organized by County Detective Alex McBeth, who was assisted by County Detective F. McLaughlin, Constables Milton Morris and Judson Sisler, and by the following members of the State constabulary: T. J. McLaughlin, of Brownsville, and O. H. Bleiler and C. Vogel, of Monongahela.

The Arnold City Social and Political Club is one of the most important here, and when it was raided the following were placed under arrest: Solomon Chambers, the janitor; Paul Leithold, Daniel O'Leary, E. Jordan, John Jackson, James Strawn and George Brown. At the Teddy Bear Club those arrested were: E. B. Farquhar, janitor; Robert Ray, G. W. Miller, owner of the building; C. Hindmarsh, secretary and treasurer, and William Duffy, the president.

INSTALLATION OF NEW MINISTER LAST EVENING

Nice Exercises Mark The Giving of Charges to People And Pastor.

MANY IN ATTENDANCE

IS TAKEN TO HOME

Beautiful exercises marked the installation of the new pastor, Rev. J. T. Hakett, at the First Presbyterian church last night. There was a nice attendance and all were pleased with the manner in which everything passed off. There were a number of visitors present, and the ministers of out-of-town churches were here to assist in the ceremonies. The choir rendered appropriate music for the occasion.

The principal address of the evening was made by Rev. W. R. Farmer, of Pittsburgh, an instructor in Western Pennsylvania Theological Seminary. He spoke of the duty of Christians in this world. Mr. Farmer was a classmate of the pastor that was installed last night and a son of physicians were called at once. They first minister of the local church, dressed his injuries as well as possible, but have no hopes for his recovery. They state that Giles may after making a neat little address, live for a day or possibly a week but the charge to the pastor was given by Rev. William McKee, of Monongahela. The installation prayer was popular.

ORGANIZATION

OF CHORAL CLUB

At a meeting of the singers of Monongahela, held in Markell's hall on Tuesday evening, the Monongahela Choral Club was organized. About thirty-five singers were in attendance and were enthusiastic over the project. Prof. Richard Knotts of Pittsburgh, who has a large class of pupils in this city, called the meeting and the response shows that a choral club will be successful. He was chosen instructor of the new club.

Meetings will be held each week and it is expected to make the club one of the best in the state. It is thought the enrollment will reach sixty to seventy-five members.

Those who are students under Prof. Knotts from Charleroi will now have to go to Monongahela; At present there are but three, Mrs. James Schnelbach, Miss Leonore Harris and Mrs. C. C. Wright.

DEVELOPMENTS IN RAILROAD CASE

In the suit of the commonwealth ex rel. the borough of Centerville against the Pennsylvania, Monongahela and Southern Railroad company, filed yesterday afternoon at Washington, writ of alternate mandamus was issued upon the defendant company, returnable to the first Monday in December. In the action the borough seeks to compel the railroad company to reconstruct a certain road way in that borough, the original road being, it is alleged, destroyed and rendered practically impassable by reason of the construction of the defendant company's tracks along it and across it. John B. Bott, construction engineer of the road, is made a party defendant.

Sixteen More Than on Tuesday Night

There were present at the night school last night 111 pupils just 16 more than on the previous night. It is thought there will be an increased attendance tonight.

PLANS TO MERGE TROLLEY LINES

Plans looking toward a merger of many trolley lines in this end of the State are expected to be formulated at a meeting of Pittsburg, Western Pennsylvania and New York capitalists at No. 32 Cortland street, New York, next week. The Night School.
The Charleroi night school has had
an immensely successful start, if
numbers make success, in an undertaking of the kind. The school directors and others as well, despite the fact that there were over one hundred
signed the petition for a night school,
did not expect to have near that many
when the time came to open, but the numbers of persons that appeared on
the first and second and third nights
were very surprising. Whether the large attendance will keep up or not is
a question, but the present indications
are that it will and possibly increase.
If there are many more persons that
desire the advantages of the night
school, it is easy to see that still an additional instructor will have to
be provided for it will be manifestly
impossible for the two men to handle
all the classes and devote the time
which would be necessary for each.

The work if it continues as it has
started will be of great benefit to those who attend. In the circumstances which they are placed it is un-
possible for them to attend the day
school and not having had the full advantages of a common school education, it will uplift them and place them on a plane with that of their
more fortunate brothers who have had
the opportunity afforded of superior
advancement in educational lines.
The ages of those who have enrolled vary to a very great extent.
There are elderly men, middle aged
men, and thus down to lads of not more than fourteen. It is to the young persons that the most benefit
will come. They who have to work
during the day have never had the
education that they should have, and
should they grow up with such little
learning they could not serve their fellow men or themselves with the
credit which would come to them
otherwise. It is ever the wish of all Americans to have this the best
country on the face of the globe and
the night school is one of the many methods by which the future generation may keep step with the progress
of other nations, in these times of
fast living. This fact was realized
by the legislators who provided in the
laws for the establishment of the
high schools.

High School Pupils Won.

The boys in a Colorado high school who had been denied by the board the privilege of organizing a team and playing football, adopted a novel and winning method of bringing the board to heed their appeal.

Their weapon was ridicule and it was more potent than the strike or noisy protest which is usually resorted to in such cases. The big boys and girls decided to give an exhibition of mollycoddleisms which they reckoned would cause the directors to grant
their request, and it worked well.

On the day following the board's refusal to let the boys organize and play and the girls "root," all the high school pupils appeared in their respective rooms prepared for what they called a sissy session. They were dressed as little children of the kindergarten type. The big boys wore knickerbockers and shirt service

announced the Kaiser's
waists, with flaring big bows, and balloon. Today comes the denial.—

spirit of the revolt, wore their hair

for the day and the board of directors

reconsidered their action as to foot-

The Matter of a Bridge.

It has been announced that the Washington and Allegheny county commissioners will meet in Pittsburg on November 25, to open bids for the erection of the new bridge at Monongahela. It is to be hoped that the Contract is awarded and work started on the erection of the new bridge soon. The present structure at Monongahela, has been condemned as unfit for use, and must either be torn down soon or the counties undergo fines of $5,000 monthly, while if there could be a new bridge erected soon,

this expense would be saved.

The Yellow Dreadful.

The celebrated "Hearst Service" gathers news sure enough but in

they called a sissy session. They accuracies, exaggerations and yellow

were dressed as little children of the will creep out.

With large headlines the Hearst
wore knickerbockers and shirt service
announced the Kaiser's
waists, with flaring big bows, and balloon. Today comes the denial.—

A Twelve Million Dollar Deal

The greatest event in the history of the piano trade in which the world renowned firms of Wm. Knabe & Co., of Baltimore; Chickering & Sons. of Boston; Haines Bros., Marshall & Wendell, Foster & Co., Armstrong Piano Co., Brewster Piano Co. and J. B. Cook & Co. have combined with a capital of $12,000,000.

We Have Participated in this Deal by Making Heavy Purchases of Discontinued Styles

As in every big combination like this—the key-note is economy. In this one—one of the principal economies is in "doing away" with dozens and even scores of case styles such as would naturally be employed by these firms while they were all manufacturing separately. Thus, one of the very first acts of the new combination was to order a discontinuance of a number of styles of each manufacturer in the new Company. It is these that we have bought—and which will give the piano buying public the greatest opportunity they have ever had to purchase a trustworthy instrument at prices far below their actual value.

New Knabes, Chickering's, Haines Bros., Marshall & Wendell, Foster & Co., Brewsters, Armstrongs, etc., here in discontinued styles at 75 to 150 dollars less than their former lowest prices.

Every piano a "brand" new one—not a second-hand, slightly-used or sample piano in the sale.

And not only in every piano a new one, but the entire sale is made up of pianos which have been the most prominent in the piano world for years and years—the world's best pianos—pianos which have been household names and have won universal approval practically since pianos have been made in America.

Anton.

After an illness of three weeks from rheumatism and heart disease, Fred M. Anton, a prominent Monongahela man died yesterday morning at 10:05 o'clock. During the last week Mr. Anton had shown great improvement from his illness, and according to his physicians, was making rapid progress toward recovery. Tuesday he sat up for some time, and received several callers. His condition in every respect was considered favorable, and there was apparently no premonition of his being taken away. Tuesday morning shortly after 10 o'clock he was seized with severe pains, and before his physicians could be summoned he was taken by death.

Mr. Anton is survived by his wife who was Miss Cora Wall of Forward township, four brothers John, Chris, George and Joseph and one sister, Mrs. Joseph T. Armstrong, of McKeesport.

He was born November 13, 1852. He was a member of the Church of the Transfiguration from where his funeral will take place Saturday morning at an hour to be designated later.

He was a charter member of the Turn and Gesang Verein Eintracht of Monongahela, as well as a member of the Fraternal Order of Eagles.

He enjoyed a wide circle of friends, all of whom were unprepared for the news of his sudden death.

Ten Deaths From Football.

Ten deaths from college football have been reported so far this season, and there is still nearly a month to play. Twenty-five other players have had bones broken or been so seriously injured as to put them out of the game, making a total of 35 bad foot-ball accidents this year.

This does not count broken noses and minor injuries, such as sprains and bruises, some of which have proved quite serious, and which, added to the more serious accidents, prove that college football is still the most dangerous sport indulged in by Americans.

Unfortunately many of these injuries can be traced to "dirty" football tactics, and needlessly rough play. All "dirty" work should be cut out and everyone interested in the game should lend a hand in trying to cut it out.

Football played by the colleges is a rough game, but it is a splendid pastime when cleanly played. With foul tactics winked at it is too dangerous to be permitted and should be classed with prize-fighting and bull-fighting. With four officials in charge of the field there is no excuse for not seeing unfair tactics when they occur, and every official should make it a point to enforce the rules, impartially and strictly. In this alone lies the lasting popularity of the game.

At Monessen Opera House.

A story of man's cruelty and woman's suffering is graphically told in Arthur Pearson's splendid emotional drama, "A Wife's Secret" which comes to the Monessen Opera House, Thursday Nov. 12th. It concerns a young wife, whose husband, believing the tongue of malicious scandal against her, turns her from his door without a chance to explain and dispel his suspicions. Her subsequent trials and persecutions in her ultimate victory against fearful odds, with many exciting events of thrilling interest form most absorbing and scul-stirring story. Contemporary press comments pronounce the production a most elaborate and complete one, and the company of the highest standing. The cast is headed by Miss Luella Arnold, the well known emotional actress, as the young wife, and it is said to be one of the best roles she has ever played. Prices, 25, 35, 50, 75c. Boxes, $1.00. ## THE DOCTOR'S QUESTION

Advice Against The Use Of Harsh Purgatives And Physics.

A doctor's first question when consulted by a patient is, "are your bowels regular?" He knows that ninety-eight per cent of illness is attended with inactive bowels and torpid liver. This condition poisons the system with noxious gases and waste matter which naturally accumulates and which must be removed through the bowels before health can be restored.

Salts, ordinary pills and cathartics may be truly likened to dynamite. Through their harsh, irritating action they force a passage through the bowels, causing pain and damage to the delicate intestinal structure which weakens the whole system, and at best only produces temporary relief.

The repeated use of such treatments cause chronic irritation of the stomach and bowels, hardens their tissues, deadens their nerves, stiffens their muscles and generally brings about an injurious habit which sometimes has fatal results.

We have positive, pleasant and safe remedy for constipation and bowel disorders in general. We are so certain of its great curative value that we promise to return the purchaser's money in every case when it fails to produce entire satisfaction. This remedy is called Rexall Orderlies. We urge you to try them at our entire risk.

Rexall Orderlies are very pleasant to take, they act quietly and have a soothing, strengthening, healing influence on the entire intestinal tract. They do not purge, erode, cause nausea, flatulence, excessive looseness, diarrhea or other annoying etc., and they may be taken at any time without any inconvenience.

Rexall Orderlies overcome the druging habit and cure constipation and all similar ailments, whether acute or chronic. They are especially good for children, weak persons or old folks. Price, 36 tablets, 25c. and 12 tablets, 10c. John W. Carroll, Charleroi, Pa.

"Parcelling Out de People."

Fishing: two boys strung their big catch on the same string. Passing a graveyard they entered the gate to divide the catch, dropping two fish just as they went inside the cemetery. Passing, an azed negro heard the two boys: "I'll take this one, you that one; I this one, you that one; I this one, you that one," etc.

The negro listened in dismay and ran away as rapidly as his old legs could carry him. He met his negro minister, who called:

"Deacon, why you run in such terror?"

"Declare, parson, I been down yonder by de graveyard and over de fence heard de devil and de Lord parceling out de people atween 'em."

The parson laughed at the old man's fright and made him go back with him to the graveyard to convince him of his error.

The boys were still dividing—"You take that, I take this," etc. Finally one boy asked, "What you going to do with them two at the gate?"

This was more than parson or deacon could stand, and both ran pell-mell, neither wishing to take any further chances, no matter what was going on just over the fence.—Augusta (Ga.) Chronicle

MONESSEN MEN ACQUITTED OF CONSPIRACY CHARGES

Jury At Greensburg Sitting On Case Returns Verdict This Morning.

Do Not Find True Bill Against Miner On Serious Charge

OCCURRENCE ON BRIDGE

Mike Moxie Not Guilty Of Involuntary Manslaughter.

This morning at Greensburg, the four men of Monessen who were sent up from that place's justice aquitted of charges of conspiracy were this morning acquitted in the grand jury. Their names are James Rose, Hubert Sauer, George Lewis and Michele Falsetto. The act of three were also charged with carrying concealed weapons, but they were acquitted of that. The account of the men's alleged attack of a man by the name of Frank Rose and the subsequent fight of the police to land them in the lockup at Monessen, as printed in these columns after the occurrence, they were cleared to the Black Hand.

It was alleged that Rose had received a Black Hand letter and was requested to place a certain amount of money at a designated spot on the bridge. He met the two men, and two of them went to the place. There they found the man, who had been shot and killed. The grand jury did not find the evidence sufficient to hold the defendant on the charge of involuntary manslaughter.

The men were acquitted of the conspiracy charge, they being any knowledge of the sending of the letter. There were present several character witnesses among them being three Dunley men. On the charge of carrying concealed weapons the latter three were acquitted by their statement that they were in fear of personal harm and explained their presence on the bridge by saying that they had gone there to see a fight between two of their countrymen.

FOREIGNER CHARGED WITH ATTEMPT TO BURN CARS

Said To Have Sold Liquor Illegally And On Sunday

ATTORNEY PREVENTS ACT

Knocks Powder From His Hands As He Raises Stuff To Lips.

With the vision of a prison sentence confronting him, Mike Sussi, charged with the illegal sale of liquor, attempted to take a dose of poison in Judge J. F. Taylor's court yesterday afternoon, and only the alertness of Erwin Cummins, his attorney, prevented the commission of the deed.

During the deliverance of Judge Taylor's charge to the jury, Sussi was very restless. His manner caused Mr. Cummins to be watchful. Sussi secretly drew paper containing a powder from his pocket, and was about to raise it to his lips when Mr. Cummins made a grab for the package and succeeded in wresting it from Sussi.

R. W. Irvin, was the attorney for the Pennsylvania Railroad company, represented the commonwealth. The case went to the jury the fore part of the afternoon and when court adjourned no agreement had been reached. An agreement though was reached about 5 o'clock last evening, and the verdict sealed.

The prosecution brought out in its testimony that on the night of Sept. 27 last Sussi approached a string of cars in the Houston yards, took from the boxing of the wheels what is termed "dope," which is grease-saturated, placed this "dope" at the ends of some of the cars, and set fire to it, thus causing the car to take fire and burn. Sussi was caught a few moments after the fires had been lighted, near the burning cars.

The defendant denied his guilt and claimed that he was at a wedding that night and that about midnight he came home, his brother-in-law being with him. As he reached the house, he said, after his brother-in-law had gone in, he noticed a fire down on the railroad and thought at once some one was trying to burn some cars. He testified he went down to the cars and while there was taken in charge by the two detectives and placed under arrest. He explained the fire grease on his hands by saying he had greased his shoes before going to the wedding and had not gone back to the house and washed his hands. His shoes he said he greased in the stable. No greasy shoes were produced, nor was the brother-in-law in court.

A Boy of the Streets.

Mr. Jack Regan who assumes the part of "Clip" the newsboy in "A Boy of the Streets" the attraction at Coyle theatre tonight, is a capital actor and a clever singer and dancer. He is ably assisted by a strong company among whom may be mentioned Gertude Lang a very talented soubrette and Miss Dorothy Lewis who will long be remembered for her artistic performance in her own play "Hearts of the Blue Ridge".

1857—Beginning of the commercial panic in England, which soon extended to the United States. In England, the liabilities of the more important banks aggregated

$50,000,000, and those of 146

firms swelled the total to over $200,000,000.

1907—Sir Lewis Morris, English poet, died in London; born 1855.

The Night School.

The Charleroi night school has had

an immensely successful start, if

numbers make success, in an under-

taking of the kind. The school directors and others as well, despite the

fact that there were over one hundred

signed the petition for a night school,

did not expect to have near that many

when the time came to open, but the

numbers of persons that appeared on

the first and second and third nights

were very surprising. Whether the

large attendance will keep up or not is

a question, but the present indications

are that it will and possibly increase.

If there are many more persons that

desire the advantages of the night

school, it is easy to be seen that still

an additional instructor will have to

be provided for it will be manifestly

impossible for the two men to handle

all the classes and devote the time

which would be necessary for each.

The work if it continues as it has

started will be of great benefit to

those who attend. In the circumstances which they are placed it is im-

possible for them to attend the day

school and not having had the fol-

advantages of a common school education, it will uplift them and place

them on a plane with that of their

more fortunate brothers who have had

the opportunity afforded of superior

advancement in educational lines.

The ages of those who have en-

rolled vary to a very great extent.

There are elderly men, middle aged

men, and thus down to lads of not

more than fourteen. It is to the

young persons that the most benefit

will come. They who have to work

during the day have never had the

education that they should have, and

should they grow up with such little

learning they could not serve their

fellow men or themselves with the

credit which would come to them

otherwise. It is ever the wish of all

Americans to have this the best

country on the face of the globe and

the night school is one of the

methods by which the future generation may keep step with the progress

of other nations, in these times of

fast living. This fact was realized

by the legislators who provided in the

laws for the establishment of the

high schools.

High School Pupils Won

The boys in a Colorado high school who had been denied by the board the privilege of organizing a team and playing football, adopted a novel and winning method of bringing the board to hear their appeal.

Their weapon was ridicule and it was more potent than the strike or noisy protest which is usually resorted to in such cases. The big boys and girls decided to give an exhibition of mollycoddleisms which they reckoned would cause the directors to grant their request, and it worked well.

On the day following the board's refusal to let the boys organize and play and the girls "root," all the high school pupils appeared in their respective rooms prepared for what they called a sissy session. They were dressed as little children of the kindergarten type. The big boys wore knickerbockers and shirt service announced the Kaiser a waists, with flaring big bows, and balloon. Today comes the denial. With large headlines the Hearst girls who had entered into the spirit of the revolt, wore their hair in beribboned pig tails and brought their dolls and Teddy bears. At recess the boys played tit-tat-toe and spun their tops, while the girls had a dolls' tea party. At noon the teachers wilted and dismissed school for the day and the board of directors reconsidered their action as to football.

The Matter of a Bridge.

It has been announced that the Washington and Allegheny county commissioners will meet in Pittsburgh on November 25, to open bids for the erection of the new bridge at Monongahela. It is to be hoped that the contract is awarded and work started on the erection of the new bridge soon. The present structure at Monongahela, has been condemned as unfit for use, and must either be torn down soon or the counties undergo fines of $5,000 monthly, while if there could be a new bridge erected soon, this expense would be saved.

A Twelve Million Dollar Deal

The greatest event in the history of the piano trade in which the world renowned firms of Wm. Knabe & Co., of Baltimore; Chickering & Sons. of Boston; Haines Bros., Marshall & Wendell, Foster & Co., Armstrong Piano Co., Brewster Piano Co. and J. B. Cook & Co., have combined with a capital of $12,000,000.

We Have Participated in this Deal by Making Heavy Purchases of Discontinued Styles

As in every big combination like this—the key-note is economy. In this one—one of the principal economies is in "doing away" with dozens and even scores of case styles such as would naturally be employed by these firms while they were all manufacturing separately. Thus, one of the very first acts of the new combination was to order a discontinuance of a number of styles of each manufacturer in the new Company. It is these that we have bought—and which will give the piano buying public the greatest opportunity they have ever had to purchase a trustworthy instrument at prices far below their actual value.

New Knabes, Chickering's, Haines Bros., Marshall & Wendells, Foster & Co., Brewsters, Armstrongs, etc., here in discontinued styles at 75 to 150 dollars less than their former lowest prices.

Every piano a "brand" new one—not a second-hand, slightly-used or sample piano in the sale.

And not only in every piano a new one, but the entire sale is made up of pianos which have been the most prominent in the piano world for years and years—the world's best pianos—pianos which have been household names and have won universal approval practically since pianos have been made in America.

KNABE

New $600 styles $460

New 550 styles 450

These pianos are the very cream of the piano world, and are identical with the instruments now in the homes and studios of the most cultured musical persons the world over.

Anton.

After an illness of three weeks from rheumatism and heart disease, Fred M. Anton, a prominent Monongahela man died yesterday morning at 10:05 o'clock. During the last week Mr. Anton had shown great improvement from his illness, and according to his physicians, was making rapid progress toward recovery. Tuesday he sat up for some time, and received several callers. His condition in every respect was considered favorable, and there was apparently no premonition of his being taken away. Tuesday morning shortly after 10 o'clock he was seized with severe pains, and before his physicians could be summoned he was taken by death.

Mr. Anton is survived by his wife who was Miss Cora Wall of Forward township, four brothers John, Chris, George and Joseph and one sister, Mrs. Joseph T. Armstrong, of Monroeville.

He was born November 12, 1852. He was a member of the Church of the Transfiguration from where his funeral will take place Saturday morning at 10 o'clock. Interment will be made later.

He was a charter member of the Turn and Gesang Verein Extract of Monongahela, as well as a member of the Fraternal Order of Eagles.

He enjoyed a wide circle of friends, all of whom were unprepared for the news of his sudden death.

Ten Deaths From Football.

Ten deaths from college football have been reported so far this season, and there is still nearly a month to play. Twenty-five other players have had bones broken or been so seriously injured as to put them out of the game, making a total of 25 bad football accidents this year.

This does not count broken noses and minor injuries, such as sprains and bruises, some of which have proved quite serious, and which, added to the more serious accidents, prove that college football is still the most dangerous sport indulged in by Americans.

Unfortunately many of these injuries can be traced to "dirty" football tactics, and needlessly rough play. All "dirty" work should be cut out and everyone interested in the game should lend a hand in trying to cut it out.

Football played by the collegians is a rough game, but it is a splendid pastime when cleanly played. With foul tactics winked at it is too dangerous to be permitted and should be classed with prize-fighting and bull-fighting. With four officials in charge of the field there is no excuse for not seeing unfair tactics when they occur, and every official should make it a point to enforce the rules, impartially and strictly. In this alone lies the lasting popularity of the game.

At Monessen Opera House.

A story of man's cruelty and woman's suffering is graphically told in Arthur Pearson's splendid emotional drama, "A Wife's Secret," which comes to the Monessen Opera House Thursday Nov. 12th. It concerns a young wife, whose husband, believing the tongue of malicious scandal against her, turns her from his door without a chance to explain and dispel his suspicions. Her subsequent trials and persecutions in her ultimate victory against fearful odds, with many exciting events of thrilling interest form most absorbing and soul-stirring story. Contemporary press comments pronounce the production a most elaborate and complete one, and the company of the highest standing.

The cast is headed by Miss Luella Arnold, the well known emotional actress, as the young wife, and it is said to be one of the best roles she has ever played. Prices, 25, 35, 50, 75c. Boxes, $1.00. Seats on sale at Light's Drug store. Donner Avenue. Phone 50-R.

Correction.

In printing the account of the Moody-Jacklin wedding last night the Mail inadvertently made two mistakes. The name of the bride was Miss Martha Jacklin, instead of Miss Mary Jacklin as we had it and the names of the attendants were Mr. and Mrs. John Rickey. It was published Mr. and Mrs. John Rickey.

Crosscreek, Nov. 11.—Mary Taylor Lee, wife of W. Craig Lee, died at her home in Crosscreek Tuesday morning at 11:30 o'clock. She is survived by her husband and two sisters, Mrs. Robert Connally, Ballimoney, Ireland; Mrs. Robert M. Tyler, Pittsburgh, and four brothers, William L., Pittsburgh; James H., Liverpool, England; John L., Seattle, Washington, and Rev. Andrew T. Taylor, D.D., of Philadelphia. Funeral services will be held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Lee, Crosscreek, November 13, at 1 p.m. Interment will be made in Crosscreek cemetery. Carriages will meet trains arriving at Burgettstown at 10:15 and 10:40 a.m. city time.

THE DOCTOR'S QUESTION

Advice Against The Use Of Harsh Purgatives And Physics.

A doctor's first question when consulted by a patient is, "are your bowels regular?" He knows that ninety-eight per cent of illness is attended with inactive bowels and torpid liver. This condition poisons the system with noxious gases and waste matter which naturally accumulates and which must be removed through the bowels before health can be restored.

Salts, ordinary pills and cathartics may be truly likened to dynamite. Through their harsh, irritating action they force a passage through the bowels, causing pain and damage to the delicate intestinal structure which weakens the whole system, and at

The repeated use of such treatments cause chronic irritation of the stomach and bowels, burdens their tissues, deadens their nerves, stiffens their muscles and generally brings about an injurious habit which sometimes has fatal results.

We have positive, pleasant and safe remedy for constipation and bowel disorders in general. We are so certain of its great curative value that we promise to return the purchaser's money in every case when it fails to produce entire satisfaction. This remedy is called Rexall Orderlies. We urge you to try them at our entire risk.

Rexall Orderlies are very pleasant to take, they act quietly and have a soothing, strengthening, healing influence on the entire intestinal tract. They do not purge, gripe, cause nausea, flatulence, excessive looseness, diarrhoea or other annoying etc., and they may be taken at any time without any inconvenience.

Rexall Orderlies overcome the drugging habit and cure constipation and all similar ailments, whether acute or chronic. They are especially good for children, weak persons or old folks. Price, 36 tablets, 25c. and 12 tablets, 10c. John W. Carroll, Charleroi, Pa.

"Parceling Out de People."

Fishing, two boys string their big catch on the same string. Passing a graveyard they entered the gate to divide the catch, dropping two fish just as they went inside the cemetery. Passing an aged negro heard the two boys: "I'll take this one, you that one; I this one, you that one; I this one, you that one," etc.

The negro listened in dismay and ran away as rapidly as his old legs could carry him. He met his negro minister, who called:

"Declare, parson, I been down yonder by de graveyard and over de fence beard de devil and de Lord parceling out de people 'twix 'em."

The parson laughed at the old man's flight and made him go back with him to the graveyard to convince him of his error.

The boys were still dividing. "You take that, I take this," etc. Finally one boy asked, "What you going to do with them two at the gate?"

This was more than parson or deacon could stand, and both ran pell-mell, neither wishing to take any further chances, no matter what was going on just over the fence.—Augusta (Ga.) Chronicle
